Alice Tully Hall

Chaired by

Sherry Jacobson and Eugene Zuriff

Alyssa Barrie Weiss and Guy Billauer

Penny and Claudio Pincus

Daniel Pincus

On Tuesday, October 29, 2013, members of the Israel Philharmonic Orchestra and conductor/violinist Julian Rachlin will return to New York for a one-night benefit engagement at Alice Tully Hall. This benefit celebrates the timelessness of the IPO and the importance of preserving this cultural gem for future generations.

Chaired by two parent/child duos - Sherry Jacobson and Eugene Zuriff with daughter Alyssa Barrie Weiss and Guy Billauer, joined by Penny and Claudio Pincus with their son Daniel Pincus, the concert will feature a performance of Vivaldi's The Four Seasons, one of the most beloved and recognizable classical masterpieces, with seven-time Emmy Award winner Alan Alda narrating seasonal poetry selections.

Directly after the concert, guests are invited to join the artists for an elegant and festive supper party. More:

ISRAEL PHILHARMONIC ORCHESTRA: 2013 NEW YORK FALL BENEFIT CONCERT

<image001.jpg>

On Tuesday, October 29, 2013, members of the Israel Philharmonic Orchestra and world renowned conductor/violinist Julian Rachlin return to New York for a one-night benefit engagement at Alice Tully Hall, presented by the American Friends of the Israel Philharmonic Orchestra. Mr. Rachlin, who has toured extensively with the IPO, conducts 25 of the Orchestra's members in the October 29 program featuring Vivaldi's masterpiece, The Four Seasons. Oscar-nominated actor, Alan Alda, joins this festive event as the narrator of four seasonally-themed poems by Shakespeare, Frost, Goethe and Tennyson. Mr. Alda remarks, "The chance to read the poems that evoke Vivaldi's The Four Seasons while listening to the Israel Philharmonic Orchestra evoke Vivaldi himself is something I can't miss."

The multi-generational Co Chairmen, Penny and Claudio Pincus, son Daniel Pincus, Sherry Jacobson and Eugene Zuriff, and daughter Alyssa Barrie Weiss, and her spouse, Guy Billauerproudly wish to preserve the legacy of this remarkable orchestra's rich history for long-time audience members as well as future generations of the Israel Philharmonic Orchestra.
